The death was there across the sky
Heavy rain in the darkest night
I saw her eyes desire
So I left the place
Where she kept on calling me
Just me

Had to stop covered tight
Looking back upon the fields
Her eyes are again on me

I am scared
But I have to stay, and fight

I will take the steel
Somehow I will win
With you, you mother fucking whore

The death was there across the sky
Heavy rain in the darkest night
I saw her eyes desire

I am scared
But I have to stay, and fight

I will take the steel
Somehow I will win
With you, you mother fucking whore

Tough to win but mustn't die
Calling for you stand up and fight
Take you steel let's fight for all
With this attitude we shouldn't fall
