There's the smell in the air, rubbed from an ad in a magazine

There's that lust in my eyes their hearts light up like TV screens

June is busting out all over

June is busting out all over

How could you look the way you do when we can do so much for you

A drug for eyes, a drug for hips, a drug to give you sweeter lips to kiss

A screw, a pull, a twist, the drug that makes you prettiest

June is busting out all over

June is busting out all over

It's sad but true, you'll be ignored - Unless you have a credit card

Imagine life fulfilled and fun you could be a model or just feel like one

Girls, the men are playing court, to us, girls are playing everything they ought

Because we're beautifiers, face-destroyers, aunts, mothers, sisters, daughters

Buy it use it, feel it, let it, If you don't, you're ugly sad and tragic

An 85 step diet plan - You need to try to please that man

Your finger nails are red like claws - but it's not for a worthy cause because

It's June and busting out all over

June is busting out all over

The pain's not bad, It's something like a wet electric shock

But he's your fella, And you love him

And all the rest is talk
