I've been waiting for something to happen
For a week or a month or a year
With the blood in the ink of the headlines
And the sound of the crowd in my ear

You might ask what it takes to remember
When you think that you've heard it before
How governments lie to their people
And now nations are driven to war

There are shadows on the faces
Of the men who fan the flames
To those wars that are fought in places
We can't even pronounce their names

On the radio, talk shows and TV
You hear one thing again and again
How the USA stands for freedom
How we come to the aid of a friend

Well, who are these ones we call our friends
These governments killing their own?
Or is it the ones who can't take any more?
So they pick up a brick or a gun or a stone

There are lives in the balance
There are people under fire
There are children at the cannons
There is blood on the wire

There is blood on the wire
There is blood on the wire
There is

Shadows on the faces
Of the men who send the guns
To those wars that are fought in places
Where their business interest runs

I wanna know who these men in the shadows are
I wanna hear somebody asking them why
They can be counted on to tell us who our enemies are

But they are never around to fight or to die

There are lives in the balance
There are people under fire
There are children at the cannons
There is blood on the wire

There is blood on the wire
There is blood on the wire
There is

Shadows on the faces
Of the men who send the guns
To those wars that are fought in places
Where their business interest runs

I wanna know who these men in the shadows are
I wanna hear somebody asking them why
They can be counted on to tell us who our enemies are
But they are never around to fight or to die

There are lives in the balance
There are people under fire
There are children at the cannons
There is blood on the wire

There is blood on the wire
There is blood on the wire
There is
