Cars came and gone, and the trucks have gone on.
Would you be so bold as to leave us
Out in the cold in the middle of the night
With the darkness all around us.
But the winds of change have brought about a feeling, warming our hearts.

I know there is a fire, but I can't seem to find it.
There's smoke all around, but I can't see the flames.
I can't feel the heat in my hands.
Now I got nothing to warm this embrace.
Gotta find a candle quick,
Gotta light it, hurry up, no time to waste.

[Chorus:]

Running as fast as you can
With your face first in the rain
Looking for the rest
Who would want so easy to attain you
You're putting on your best
For those Monday morning accolades.

We can't always have what we want right now
Gimme that quick,
Do you mean I can't have it?
Could've been wrong, could've been right,
It's not like my heart's metallic.
The fact of the matter is simply
That we need to learn to wait our turn.

The birds going crazy outside in the snow
They must know of something we don't know
My eyes need time to adjust
Focus now, no need to rush
Taking me back, bringing me back,
Can we go back home now?

[Chorus]

Blank page, clean slate,
New beginning's past to create
Let's get a move on
We've got a new start to start to start
I can't go alone until you know everyone needs a hand to hold
So take mine, and I'll take yours

Dreamed I saw you on the hill over there
Just, just waving back at me
You were sent to save, saved to be, sent here
'Cause the light is on over the door of my heart.

[Chorus]
