I couldn't tell you what was missing from my life
I just knew I needed something real to make it right
I was feeling disconnected from my soul

Everyday I'd wake up thinking there must be something more
I was filled with questions like what am I living for Didn't have a clue what to do or which way to go

I was lost in my heart, I searching in the dark
But I could not find the answers anywhere
The only place I had to look was there inside that book
Life is fragile handle with prayer

It was like a weight was lifted I was not alone
The confusion that I faced was suddenly all gone
I just had to let him in to fix all that was wrong

I was lost in my heart I searching in the dark
But I could not find the answers anywhere
The only place I had to look was there inside that book
Life is fragile handle with prayer

And to think so much comfort was right there all the time
It to think I couldn't see it how could I been so blind
