The sun peaks through the window as I open up my eyes
I feel you softly breathing lying closely by my side
I hear the sound of little voices from the bedroom down the hall
I may not have a lot of things but to me I have it all

I'm so thankful for all the blessings in my life
Three little angels and a loving wife
And in all my wildest dreams I can't imagine anything
More beautiful, so wonderful, I'm thankful

I know that I'm not special, just an ordinary man
I know I'm not deserving so it's hard to understand Why all these simple treasures have been laid here at my feet
So before I close my eyes at night I get down on my knees

I'm so thankful for all the blessings in my life
Three little angels and a loving wife
And in all my wildest dreams I can't imagine anything
More beautiful, so wonderful, I'm thankful

I can live without possessions and the money might run out
But it's the things that you can't buy or sell that life is all about

I'm thankful for all the blessings in my life
Three little angels and a loving wife
And in all my wildest dreams I can't imagine anything
More beautiful, so wonderful, I'm thankful
