Hey!
How did I wake up in this place?
A missing person lost without a trace
Guess I got fooled by a famous face.

I...
I was locked up deep inside
It was so dark I couldn't see the sky
My truth is fighting just to see the light

(CHORUS)
Then running like a dog with a busted leash
Burning like a tires when the lights turn me
Hey I'm walking wounded but I still believe
Learning how to fly with the broken wing

I...
I though I could have it all
A broken parachute would break my fall
I tempted fate and then I hit the wall

I...
Left scattered ashes in my way
And there was nothing left that I could say
So I just digged my past in any grave

I'm telling now
What's left in my reflection
A proud and out of Key

Then running like a dog with a busted leash
Burning like a tires when the lights turn green
Hey I'm walking wounded but I still believe
Learning how to fly with the broken wing

I took the wheel
I'm changing my direction
Breaking my tales
Keep down the backdoor
Just let the busted engines
What I've been living in, hey...

Then running like a dog with a busted leash
Burning like a tires when the lights turn green
Hey I'm walking wounded but I still believe
Learning how to fly with the broken wing
