Burning bridges, breaking hearts

Everything you taught us to do

We're burning bridges, and breaking hearts

No home to come home to

We're burning bridges, and breaking hearts

I won't look you in the eye

And burning bridges, breaking hearts

Caught you in a friendship lie

Took a visit, to your old house

The windows were all boarded up

Try to hold these, memories

The ocean in a paper cup

There's no future in this town

They barricade the buildings there

To the lion, you've been cast

Only bones are gonna last

There's a city, underground

There's a city made of glass

There's a city, (there's a city) underground

Hurry cause it's breaking fast

And burning bridges, and breaking hearts

Everything you taught us to do
We're burning bridges and breaking hearts
No home to come home to
We're burning bridges
(and breaking hearts)
We're burning bridges
(and breaking hearts)
Burning bridges, breaking hearts
(breaking hearts)
Burning bridges, breaking hearts
Everything you taught us to do
We're burning bridges and breaking hearts
No home to come home to
We're burning bridges and breaking hearts
Everything you taught us to do
We're burning bridges and breaking hearts
No home to come home to
We're burning bridges and breaking hearts
Everything you taught us to do
We're burning bridges and breaking hearts
