This game is getting fair, I'm up to winning now
So if I stick around it's just to make you smile
I just figured out this shit may take a while
But I'm down, yeah, I'm down
But listen, I'm thinking more chips, entourage, cold shit

It's always down this smoke shit, someone I could grow
with Look behind the low tense, split a 50/50 down the middle leaving no risk

The trees is all I'm breaking up, the coolest J that ladies love
Born in this shot, in the '80s was a baby cub Life is a bitch and I fuck her 'cause she be playing rough And she be saying stuff like that, I'm on some different shit, percentages
Business shit, recreating moments, slow jams, twisting shit
Four grams, piffing shit Breaking up ain't hard to do 'cause you just see whose fault it is Now I see a flow and you broken the low in two Possession with intent to sell but God made provisions It's prison when you sit in jail, you see, I learned early So when LeBron left Cleveland the last thing I was thinking was let me burn his jersey Class of '85, nigga, 'cause James worth it I joined in '94, get bored and leaved early Hurry, doing numbers in from word of mouth Dudes just never spare me but labels, they never turn me down

This game is getting fair, I'm up to winning now
So if I stick around it's just to make you smile
I just figured out this shit may take a while
But I'm down, yeah, I'm down
But listen, I'm thinking more chips, entourage, cold shit
It's always down this smoke shit, someone I could grow

Look behind the low tense, split a 50/50 down the
middle leaving no risk

My life is complicated and she just need a little space Don't get those type of broads, blondes tell me pick a lane
Same shit, different day, more dates, all up in the rear Shake the rose, kush with the OJ
This music got love, it's tough to get paid
It's more than multiple choice, fill in the blanks
I pray I never lose focus, hoes just get in the way And this show's ugly, Kid Cudi, don't get up on the stage
But breaking up ain't hard to do, I think I get it I'm the next generation, Star Trek Enterprise
Michael Jackson bad, my batteries energize Then it keeps going, don't know when I'll be criticized But I'm ok with it, quick kid, play your shit Best I've ever had, Drake think the latest shit G educate and shit, me and Mike hiding out in Cali with them Asian twins Captain never say this but

This game is getting fair, I'm up to winning now
So if I stick around it's just to make you smile
I just figured out this shit may take a while
But I'm down, yeah, I'm down
But listen, I'm thinking more chips, entourage, cold shit
It's always down this smoke shit, someone I could grow
with
Look behind the low tense, split a 50/50 down the middle leaving no risk
