Chorus:

"Past is past, you never really gave it a shot
Maybe you'll find that
(Repeat 3x's)
When you come back, I'll be alright"

Verse 1:

Yeah they say he Lion King Simba
Kemba Walker when I cross em
Quarterback league - I just had to learn the offense
Ham for my city - I aint got no other options
A buncha Keri Hilson's - Pretty Girl Rock shyt
Woke up hung over - I am Zach Galifianakis
Tyson in his prime - I'm not the nigga to box wit Wit more bars - than I convict - it's crucial like the conflict
That's not the same thing - like a pussy and a cock pit
They gone tell you fables - these labels be on that slave
shyt
Other rappers rappin' - I'm the captain - tryin to save ship
That's food for thought - you should add it to your plate quick
I could be your hero - I think I can I change this
I, gotta go in - and these haters aint takin days off
Not when I'm speakin for people who gettin laid off,
I'm given em songs as long as it's an even trade off
And they should pray for me
Because they are somethin I pray for and

Chorus:

"Past is past, you never really gave it a shot
Maybe you'll find that...
(Repeat 3x's)
When you come back, I'll be alright"

Yeah and this is from my heart, my soul, on everything
that I know

I'm alive and it's on, and it's about to be some shyt
I told you it's about to be some shyt

Verse 2:

Yeah I'm fed up cuz the game is gettin foul
But the refs won't even call it Still the leader of the free world - each verse - awesome
Nerd with fresh kicks - fresh prince Carlton
Can't wait til I see green - like a Celtic, Boston
I don't give a fuck - and above whatever the law is Too many bosses and I'm a guard against the garbage,
See they don't give em the credit - and that is not ok
How could you turn your Back to the Future - like you were Michael J. Fox
I love the block, knock some groupies off
Chill with model hoes, some common folk, and movie stars
Keep the lights on - regardless if they know who we are It'll be an odd future - wolf gang kill em all
Wanna shut em up - shut em down - or just kill em off
Instead of bein proud that I made it - which I don't get at all
Maybe you'll find out - all I need is the right crowd
Right sound and you turn the lights out, right now!

Chorus:

"Past is past, you never really gave it a shot
Maybe you'll find that
(Repeat 3x's)
When you come back, I'll be alright"

Yeah and this is from my heart, my soul, on everything
that I know
I'm alive and it's on, and it's about to be some shyt
Yeah I told you it's about to be some shyt

I hope, I pray

Lights on.
