and what i also like by Jan Rot Tickling is the kind of favour I ask every woman in my neighbourhood. Tickling is the kind of feeling that turns every evening from bad into good. Tickling has that kind of humour, oh physical humour means so much to me. Tickle, tickle me five minutes, tickle me an hour and I belong to you. And what I also like is lying on the ground, while girls are trying to drop some grapes into my mouth. In my eyes and in my hair, throw your grapes everywhere, but throw one in my mouth and I belong to you!
Love games, I've found them odd and dull. Love games, I don't like
'm at all. But my games are fun and easy to do. My games, play one of my games and I belong to you. And what I also like is number 69 while I am kissing your feet and you are kissing mine.
But when you ask me honestly what is really pleasing me: kiss my little toe
and I belong to you!
