Fuck lovers I hate this shit it only hurts now just another relationship that doesn't work out fuck it you make me sick I let the word out fall in love with a crazy bitch your heart will burn out blood pressure bubbles up what the fuck it feels stuck I cannot touch another one of these anti depressants man this cant be the message somebody hand me a lesson cuz I'm standin and stressin when I'm plannin my death in this might be the last minute that I stand on this planet look at me stranded, i'm panicin, man I cant understand it my life is a manic depressant but I managed to stand it until I land in the hamptons I'm withstanding the damage so I gotta calm my nerves and take a deep breath cuz I will never learn if I take each step cuz I'm feeling stronger now feeling stronger now

(Chorus)

Days pass and I wander alone
i'm tryin to find my way
They think that I'm living in the wrong well I got something to say and we will always be the same
even though we constantly change

There aint a way to fade away so take away the razor blades
it aint safe to say that making pain will take the pain away theres greater ways to change the page and everybody hates to say it but you gotta tame the rage you been sayin

you aint gonna make it oh its hard I know that its hard you cant trust no one and your covered in scars theres knives in my back with my friends names on them
we try to relax but the pain keeps runnin our mind off the tracks while we try to stay on them you lied in the past while we remained honest we tired of this crap were just tryin to make dollars we grind for this cash while you try to hate on us everywhere I go I know they wanna fight me even though they dont know me they dont like me they think that im terrified I just hold my head up high if they wanna fuck with me just know that imma let em try

(Chorus)

Days pass and I wander alone
I'm tryin to find my way
They think that im living in the wrong

These words will prove that I will not live in fear
these words will prove that
I bet you wanna know what I'm feelin like while I'm sitting here spinning these rhymes well if you wanna know what im feeling like I feel like im the best of my time I took my heart and I locked it up in a safe with a straight face and threw away the key now that I know my heart is in a safe place theres not a single thing that you can do to me

(Chorus)

Days pass and I wonder alone
I'm tryin to find my way
They think that im living in the wrong
you have everything that you need its in your arms

your arms
