Sarcasm I've put together a good guess of all the lyrics here they are

We need a revolution!
We need a revolution!

As far as my naked eye can see
There's not a place that is heavenly
You're freedom is in your heart
You're freedom is in your heart
Don't let it go

There's an energy steadily telling me that ahead of me I will be defeating all of my enemies without any weaponry so there's no point in defending me I'm intelligently on another level you see cause I've been chosen to start a motion and I am focused no longer hopeless no longer broken I am now a man with a power full plan I wrote down with a pen so I can shout it again and again

The fires burnn and I'm concerned I'm making sure you hear my every word
I'm not pretentious
I've been selected
To try to give this world a heart And Fix what you have torn apart I need to be respected While I cure the infected

As far as my naked eye can see
There's not a place that is heavenly
You're freedom is in your heart
You're freedom is in your heart
Don't let it go

I'm gonna reach out and speak out to the weak crowd that needs help from me now so you see how while meanwhile the worlds in distress I'm holding this mess it hurts to confess that I aint never had a taste of bliss so ima raise my fist take a risk and make a wish I will never bend break or twist and I'm on a mission to escape this great abyss

This is for the ones who wear blood on their faces and for the ones who were born in broken places Why do they scream
Why do they scream
Why do they scream?
Because this planet holds to much suffering
As far as my naked eye can see
There's not a place that is heavenly
You're freedom is in your heart
You're freedom is in your heart
Don't let it go

(Your freedom is in your heart your freedom is in your, your freedom freedom your freedom freedom)
Don't let it go!

I'm the king
And I need my chair
Until I get it yall need to be scared
This is just something that I need to declare The world needs me like people need air Just look at me screaming at the top of my lungs it's not even fun and even if you show me your guns you couldnt stop me a once it can't be possibly done I can't be killed I'm a prodigal son

(There is a world out there and even if you decide you don't want to need it it's still going to hit you right in your face)

I wont leave you when I'm needed This wont be a secret I will expose what you kept from me Time wont be there when you need it This wont be a secret When the smoke clears you will really see That I'll be facing you standing still and I'll be chanting my feelings real I'll be facing you standing still and I'll be chanting my feelings real
