My life ain't paradise there's no, champagne on ice
But someone to share it with now, wouldn't that be nice
No one knows loneliness no, not better than me
But timing is everything, it should happen naturally

And I, know there's someone fro me
Someone who will love and adore me
He might not be standing here before me
But tomorrow's a brand knew day
It's a brand knew day honey

My heart is troubled by the, by the wayof the world
Anger's in over drive and there's need to be concerned
You deserve a friend and I'll be that to you
Learn to live together well thats all we have to do

And I, know there's someone fro me
Someone who will love and adore me
He might not be standing here before me
But tomorrow's a brand knew day
It's a brand knew day honey

And I know I can't be wrong
Cos I know that i know the road we travel is winding
And if we can't get along
Then tomorrows a brand knew day

A brand knew day-just to see the world
Through unassuming eyes
A chance to really try
A day to turn and face the one you truly love
And say I'll be by your side

Some days I'm overjoyed and happy like a clown other days I'm all washed out and that Smiles turningupside down
Well know nbody's purfect but we gottashare the love Getting in together well that's all I'm thinking of

And I, know there's someone fro me
Someone who will love and adore me
He might not be standing here before me

But tomorrow's a brand new day
It's a brand new day honey
