I remember the first time I looked into your eyes
Such an instant chemistry, took me by surprise
'Cause I never knew until that day if love was meant for me

To the beat of my heart, thumpin' in my chest
I wanna click my fingers and stomp my feet
'Cause you make me feel so happy, honey

You and me words can't say just what you mean to me
So let's just practice what comes naturally
I been waiting for so long, I can't get you out of my head
Can't sing a different song

You're the only man who's kept me satisfied
Every inch of my body heart and mind
You give me every thing a girl could ever want or need

To the beat of my heart, thumpin' in my chest
I wanna click my fingers and stomp my feet
'Cause you make me feel so happy, honey

You and me words can't say just what you mean to me
So let's just practice what comes naturally
I been waiting for so long, I can't get you out of my
Can't sing a different song

Never thought that I'd meet anyone like you boy
And when your here there ain't nothing that I can do
Baby, baby, baby, yeah, what I'm gonna do
Is click my fingers and stomp my feet
