Ever wonder what I think of you, All the bullshit you put me through, I can see it in your eyes your scared, Your too late, I don't care I'm drowning in your words, Covered by the scars you left me, Memories they hurt, now look who's finally on their knees,

And I can't go on,
You living inside my mind,
Temptation so strong, I can't Leave you behind, so much Bitterness and emptiness in my life,

I'm starving for your hurt, searching for your empty words, Desperation's never been so clear to me

And I can't go on,
You living inside my mind,
Temptation so strong, I can't Leave you behind, so
much Bitterness and emptiness in my life,

Tell me what it takes to make you mine, Tell me what it takes to make you thrive, Satisfaction never felt so good, I've never felt, So alive

And I can't go on,
You living inside my mind,
Temptation so strong, I can't Leave you behind, so much Bitterness and emptiness in my life,
