Do you ever wish
Life was a dream
Just slip away
Into serenity
When you're awake
It's insanity
Lies are cloaked in reality
'Cause nothing's as it seems
On the outside
And you're so incomplete
On the inside

Like comets in the atmosphere
Burning so bright
A flash of light then we disappear
Into the night
'Cause no one knows just why we're here
Time to realize
Enlightment becomes so clear if you just

Break free
Break free
Break free
It's time for you to just breathe
Break free
Break free
Break free
It's time for you to believe

Don't you realize what's in front of me
You're wide awake but you're still asleep
So confused by the words we speak
These half-truths to meant to deceive

'Cause nothing's quite as real
On the outside
So tell me how it feels
To be free for the first time

Like comets in the atmosphere
Burning so bright

A flash of light then we disappear
Into the night
'Cause no one knows just why we're here
Time to realize
Enlightment becomes so clear if you just

Break free
Break free
Break free
It's time for you to just breathe
Break free
Break free
Break free
It's time for you to believe

Break free
Break free
Break free
It's time for you to just breathe
Break free
Break free
Break free
It's time for you to believe
