(Cassidy Booth Deforest)

Away, I'm watching you drive away Couldn't think of the right words to say, or reasons that we need to stay together
My fears, it's too hard to face all my fears
I keep replaying all of the years
The laughter, heartache and tears that we shared together
I know I feel it in my heart
We're so much better off just being apart We used to chase our dreams, but our dreams just got
in our way
Now there's nothing left to say
So long, I guess I loved you so long It's hard now for me to be strong, but there's just no reason to stay together
I know I feel it in my heart
We're so much better off now that we're apart
We used to chase our dreams, but our dreams just got
in our way
Goodbye, I guess this is really goodbye
And there's just no tears left to cry Separate ways, we're no good together
