You take it nice and easy
You play it safe cause that's what people do today
- well I guess that's okay Girl somewhere in your mind there must be a perfect time to fall in love Well baby I'm burning up So why not now, why not here, darling my heart just ain't too clear
Now what are we waiting for, cause I've never been so sure
Why not you, why not me, living like we were meant to be together forever
Why not now
Right here in this moment we can start a love to stand the test of time
And baby you know that's right No one knows tomorrow, the morning sun can rise and take our chance away Long gone with yesterday
(Chorus)
So why not now, why not here, darling my heart just ain't too clear
Now what are we waiting for, cause I've never been so
sure
Why not you, why not me, living like we were meant to
be together forever
Why not now
Repeat Chorus
Baby why not now
