(Jerry Fuller - Cissi Wilson)

Just take a moment to remember
The love that we once knew
Darling, please don't go 'cause I love you so
And I just can't believe we're through.

You just take a moment you discover
That I need you so close to me
So give our romance just one more chance
For our love's meant to be.

Just take a moment think of the past
Take your time and don't you think so fast
I know you'll find
That our love will last for eternity.

Just take a moment to believe me
For it's your love that I'm living for
If you'll promise never to leave me
That our love will last evermore.

Just take a moment think of the past
Take your time and don't you think so fast
I know you'll find that our love
Will last for eternity.

So just take a moment to believe me
For it's your love that I'm living for
If you'll stay here never to leave me
That moment will last evermore.

Yes, that moment will last evermore.
Well, that moment will last evermore...
