(A. Johnston, S. Coslow)

I can't even think of her name
But it's funny now and then
How my thoughts go flashing back again
To my old flame.

My old flame
My new lovers all seem so tame
'Cause I haven't met a girl

A fascinating gaze in their eyes
Some who took me up to the sky's

But I'll never be the same
Until I discover what became
Of my old flame.

My old flame
I can't even think of her name
But I'll never be the same
Until I discover what became
Of my old flame.
