The kisses that you used to give are the sweet sweet kisses I will miss
You don't love me anymore and I can tell I can tell Another boy has made you change when I'm around you're acting strange
You don't love me anymore and I can tell
Maybe you can bring yourself to tell me of him
After thinking about the love we used to share
When you're holding me I know you're thinking of him
No you don't love me anymore and I can tell
No you don't love me anymore and I can tell
