You're free to go, darling
I'll break the ties that bind
Somehow the dreams
We planned have gone astray

You're free to go, darling
So ease your worried mind
I'll never stand in your way

There's no ring of shining gold
So strong that it can hold
A heart when it longs to be free

The lips are cold, darling
That once said yes to me
The tender glow is gone
I know you're free to go
There's no ring of shining gold

There's no ring of shining gold
So strong that it can hold
A heart when it longs to be free

The lips are cold darlin'
That once said yes to me
The tender glow, is gone I know
You're free to go
