(Verse1)

What were you thinking when you left me outside in the cold

I waited for you

Give me a reason why you never answered your phone

Just tell me the truth

Did you really believe you could come back to me

Pretending as if nothing is wrong

(Chorus)

You can call out my name and know i'll be here

In your darkest of nights i'll always be near

But you shattered my dreams so one thing is clear

You can't have my heart, my hearts all out of tears

(Verse2)

What were you thinking lying about where you'd gone

Girl, i already knew

It's not a secret, You've been running with him all night long

Is that how you do

Now you're back to your games, you've got no one to blame

You broke the trust in our love

(Chorus)

There was a time you had me blinded

Lost in your eyes, how could i see the light

Why would you wrong me, when i knew you see

I tear the walls down for you

(Chorus)

You can call out my name and know i'll be here

In your darkest of nights i'll always be near

You shattered my dreams so one thing is clear

You can't have my heart, i won't give you my heart

No you can't have my heart, my hearts all out of tears
