(Verse1)

Hey there excuse me miss
Im sorry that i stopped you on the street like this
But you look like someone that i once knew
Don't you reconize me
I used to live down at the end of your street
Tell me how's things girl, what's been up with you
Pretty lies can't disguise the pain i see in your eyes
You can't fool this whole world
No matter how hard you try
I can't but what your selling me
And there's more to the story you ain't telling me

(Chorus)

Hey little sister it's been a long time and i've missed ya
Tell me what your doing out here all alone
Hey baby girl now tell me what's wrong with the world now
Did you take the wrong turn, can you find your way home

(Verse2)

You used to play hopscotch and double dutch
But you were kind of shy, didn't say too much
Tell me is that little girl still inside of you
You had big dreams and your big brown eyes
Trying to be the brightest star in the sky
But fairy tails don't always come true
Pretty lies can't disguise the pain i see in your eyes
You can't fool this whole world
No matter how hard you try
I can't but what your selling me
And there's more to the story you ain't telling me

(chorus)

You tell me girl you're ok, atleast that's what you say
See the pain, it might as well be written on your face
Tried to be a star, didn't get to far
Cause someone took your dream and tore it all apart
Hope you don't mind me sayin', it's yourself your're playin'
You're messin' with your life, you think it's all a game
You tried it on your own, and now your all alone
I think you better check yourself and find your way back

home
I can't but what your selling me
And there's more to the story you ain't telling me
(Chorusx2)
Little sister
It's been a long time
Tell me what your doin here, what your doin here
Whoa
