Verse 1:

What does your love mean to me
Its something i can't answer easily
Just like the air that i breathe
You fill me up inside, you give me all that i need
Like a bird flying high on a summers day
You're the wind that carries me away
To a place where you and i will always stay forever

Chorus:

If i never get to heaven then at least i will have known
I had an angel here on earth that I could call my very own
And if this world should end tomorrow,girl this much i know is true
I found my piece of heaven the day that i found you

Verse 2:

Longer than poets will rhyme
Girl my love will burn for you until the end of time
If i should die before tomorrow comes
I wont regret a single day, because i had your love
Must be somethin in the way you say my name
It takes away my worries and my pain
Girl i know we'llmake it through the rain together

Chorus:

own
And if this world should end tomorrow girl this much i know is true
I found my piece of heaven the day that i found you

Bridge:

Like a river flows and a flower grows, my love for you will never fade
Like the sun will rise in the morning sky
You know that i am here to stay forever
(instrumental interlude)

Chorus:

I had an angel here on earth that i could call my very
own
And if the world should end tomorrow

Girl this much i know is true
I have found my piece of heaven the day that i found you
Like a river flows and a flower grows, my love for you
will never fade
Like the sun will rise in the morning sky you know i am here to stay
