1st Verse

I can see you're hurting
Inside I feel your pain
You feel like know one out there could ever stop this rain
But the storm it keeps coming
And growing stronger with each day
You ask the same old question do I have to live this way

Chorus

And she cries
Someone stop these tears from falling
Someone stop this heart from breaking
Please god answer just one little prayer
Is there anybody there

2nd Verse

She just wants to find some peace
She tries to hold on to her faith
It takes all of her energy to get through each day
She turns to her family
She turns to her friends
She begins to wonder will they be there in the end

Chorus

And she cries
Someone stop these tears from falling
Someone stop this heart from breaking
Please god answer just one little prayer
Is there anybody there

Lead

Repeat Chorus with Break down
