I light me up this cigarette
Two pack a day they haven't killed me yet
A bottle crown would suite me fine
It's my drug of choice every time
Just walk a mile in my shoes
You can bet I've got nothing to lose
I'm at the point of no return
Another lesson I must learn

Cause I've been fighting with the devil
And he keeps bringing me down
It's hard to let go of this bottle and this life that I've found
My family couldn't handle seeing slip away
It's a road they would travel for me it's to late

I'm sick and tired of being up all night
I give in when I should fight
Everyday it's all the same
This poison running through my veins
All my family I've let tem down
I don't know why they stuck around
Some say it's that path I chose
But it chose me for all I know

Cause I've been fighting with the devil
And he keeps bringing me down
It's hard to let go of this bottle and this life that I've
found
My family couldn't handle seeing slip away
It's a road they would travel for me it's to late
