You and me are not the same
Although you know, I'd like to think we are
You and me are worlds apart
The naked eye could never see how far
I imagine you lonely
I imagine you cry
All on your own
All on your own

So take your time
Don't answer now
Don't think too hard
You're not the saddest heart
Every day is a roll of the dice
That's the way it goes
Don't take it all so hard
I imagine you lonely
I imagine you cry
All on your own
All on your own
All on your own

And I imagine you lonely
I imagine you cry, cry, cry
All on your own
All on your own

You and me are not the same
Although I like to think we are
You and me are not the same
Although I like to think we are
You and me are not the same
Although I like to think we are
You and me are worlds apart
That's the way it goes
You're not the saddest heart
