"Horizon"

restless she counts paled footprints
last memories shaped a narrow
way
endless shining
like the paintings
marching at night -
she ran out of breath and dropped back

horizon
gone lost in the maze
horizon
sleep with my soul

young fellow conquered the distance
wanted to die in foreign climes streets of silence
changed the signs
and let him astray -
he marched away and
stayed

horizon
gone lost in the maze
horizon
sleep with my soul

marching
marching
marching

away
