"RIDE THE WAVE"

Visit "RIDE THE WAVE" on MotoLyrics.com

I want to ride the wave
to leave it all behind
to be washed away
I will conquer the sun
to steal the light
that marks myself - (it started as a surprise a well-known friend invading the nights am I not what I ought to be spinning around in my darkened room.)
- I'll ride the wave
to leave it all behind
to be washed away
I'll conquer the sun to steal the light that marks myself -
ride the wave
ride the wave
ride the wave

(rusted chair in the corner sheets - empty words - erased cover the shades
unspoken wishes echoing to the centre Ahead! they said - preferred to stay in the past.) I don't need to whisper I prefer to roar
if you want to touch me I'm already a part of the undertow
if you want to seek me I'm already sunken
if you want to drown me - I'm already drunk
