all his saints apologized apologized for their absence when he needed them the most saints were searching for excuses but the gun - drop - drop - drop that silly gun ... they said well, inside things can change virgin thoughts set out on a walk and visit you to fade away

we will survive

greeting cards from heaven on that day sacred farewell kisses and absent saints
left notices said:
all or nothing
all or nothing.

and the rain drop - drop - drops down on me
and visit us to wash away

I removed my life jacket.
