I tell you honestly
Don't you go and throw your heart away
I know it's so hard to do
You've got to let go when you want to hold on

I know how much you miss him celebrate what you had Don't cry about the things left unsaid, it'll do no good
You look for mercy and a meaning somewhere
But you know that the hurting won't go 'til you walk through the fire

It's gonna take an act of faith to stand up and face the day
It's gonna take an act of faith, nobody can make you stay
It's gonna take an act of faith
Maybe love will find it's way back into your life

Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it

Stand up, don't you fall
You just take good care of where you are You're thinking life's through with you
That's not what he'd want or what you should do

I know you loved him, baby, celebrate who he was I know you know you've got to go on and live your life
Go down to the river of the spirit that runs through you
And lay yourself down in the healing waters

It's gonna take an act of faith to stand up and face the
It's gonna take an act of faith, nobody can make you
It's gonna take an act of faith
Maybe love will find it's way back into your life

Love is a healer
There is no purpose served in holding on
Love is a healer
There is no understanding why

Love is a healer
There is no sin in you
That brought this to your door
My love, it just is

Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it

Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it
Here's my heart my love is in it

It's gonna take an act of faith to stand up and face the
It's gonna take an act of faith, nobody can make you
It's gonna take an act of faith
Maybe love will find it's way back into your life

It's gonna take an act of faith to stand up and face the
It's gonna take an act of faith, nobody can make you
It's gonna take an act of faith
Maybe love will find it's way back into your life

It's gonna take an act of faith to stand up and face the
It's gonna take an act of faith, nobody can make you
It's gonna take an act of faith
Maybe love will find it's way
