Keeping us together
And holding us apart
Is a love that we talk about

I'm finding it harder every day
To take it as it comes
But as one fool once explained to me
You can't choose who you love

Everybody's cheating on the one they love
Everybody's looking for the summer sun
No, I believe I'll love you 'til my life is done

I'll live your lies and alibis
The telltale stories in your eyes
'Cause you are, you are the one I love

Yes, I love you like you love me
I need you like a lover
No, you need me and I need you
We're still cheating on each other

Everybody's cheating on the one they love
Everybody's looking for the summer sun
No, I believe I'll love you 'til my life is done

I'll live your lies and alibis
The telltale stories in your eyes
'Cause you are, you are the one I love

What is the question?
What is the answer?
What is the reason why?

People like you
And people like me
Live our lives with lies

Everybody's cheating on the one they love
Everybody's looking for the summer sun
No, I believe I'll love you 'til my life is done

I'll live your lies and alibis
The telltale stories in your eyes
'Cause you are, you are the one I love
