Afloat on the ocean, adrift in the sea
No one around us, there's just you and me
Alone on an island, asleep on the shore
Miles from everyone, I need nothing more

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that your there

We wake in the morning, we walk by the shore
Miles from everyone, I need nothing more
We float on the ocean, we drift in the sea
The water surrounds us, so easy and free

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that your there

We float on the ocean, we drift in the sea
The water surrounds us, so easy and free

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that your there

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that your there
