Heal my broken soul

There's a hole in the floor with a lovely chout
A shadow in my heart that's filled with doubt
A devil on my back I can hearing him shout
(Let me in, let me in)

I went looking for your city of kingdom come
On my way to hit a roadside bomb
It's always darkest before the dawn
(Lift me up, lift me up)

Heal my broken soul
Take me!

I'm down to one last heartbeat
Let's dance a waste of pride
You know I'd walk on water
To bridge, this great divide
My last heartbeat
Waits for the wrecking crew
The cavalries they're coming
There is no one but you

Heal my broken soul

I watch your eyes light up like lightning strikes
Shield your heart with railroad spikes
Battle scars in the firefights
(Shelter me, shelter me)

A little lost in the city of eternal lights
I'm underthrown with a fear of heights
Only with your touch of sirit lights
(Light me up, light me up)

Heal me broken soul
Take me!

I'm down to one last heartbeat
Let's dance a waste of pride

You know I'd walk on water
To bridge, this great divide
My last heartbeat
Waits for the wrecking crew
The cavalries they're coming
There is no one but you

Take me!

I'm down to one last heartbeat
All bridges have been burned
I can't deal back, what you give me
Cause love can't be returned

My last heartbeat
It still fix the dreams come true
There is no one can heal me
There is no one but you

My last heartbeat
Let's dance a wasted pride
You know I'd walk on water
To bridge this great divide

My last heartbeat
Waits for the wrecking crew
The cavalries they're coming
There is no one but you

Heal my broken soul
Heal my broken soul
