Hello heartache, I thought you'd be here
Why don't you and loneliness go grab yourself a beer
Misery loves company, that's why I knew he'd come
We're havin' us a family reunion

How ya doin', must have been years
I didn't see you guys at all, the whole time she was here
Let's break out the bottle, the party's just begun
We're havin' us a family reunion

Here comes ole mister teardrops
And look theres uncle blues
On and on with sister faded love
In my cup of mornin' blues

Hello sadness, you finally came around
She filled my life with love and I guess you were outta town
Come on in the gangs all here, I can't say it's been fun
But we're havin' us a family reunion

Looks like another big old broken hearted
No guests have yet departed
Can't stop once you get started
Kinda family reunion
