Theres so much I want to tell you
I dont know where to start
I dont claim to be a poet
Even simple words come hard
But I can tell you heart to heart
You are to me what the moon is to the night
What the rain is to summer
When I look in your eyes I see
What heaven is to eternity
You are to me
Every day I stand amazed
How good life is to me
When god was painting the big picture
He must have smiled to see we fit so perfectly
You are to me what the moon is to the night
What the rain is to summer
When I look in your eyes I see
What heaven is to eternity
You are to me
Call it fatecall it destiny
Call it lifes greatest mystery
I know theres no greater truth I was made for loving you
You are to me what the moon is to the night
What the rain is to summer
When I look in your eyes I see
What heaven is to eternity
You are to me
