How can you love when you've had ya heart filled full of snow, wind brings a hollow soul where No man will go, what can grow when there aint a warmth
for it to hold, so I stand in cold, Waited for the days old, mold snow into a hand, grab it if you can, all I wanted was for You to say I can, Land turned into the arctic, frozen in time, clock beats as snow pores w Sands of time, Sunshine neva enters that horizon line, chalk outline lined w my bodily flesh, Around the spot to the left of my chest, lest this story be told, neva unfold What happens next cuz to the world test, a test to check what will occur when the worlds at it's Best will you fall into the line or stand out from the rest

How can you Breath when your Lungs push out ice from ya chest, at best your tears freeze On contact w ya flesh, mr. frosty where have you been, coal buttons, and a pipe
and a heart
Full of sin, forced to walk in the wind, weathered by freezing strikes that hard, trying to the Bad cards to a royal flush, but hush, you only salt the ice to dark mush, slush that sticks to
The walls of your arteries, shotgun gun blast try to murder me, But you can live in the frozen

Abis or head home, live with guilt or clear the icebergs str8 outta ya dome, neva live alone Reach up to the sky, ask why, or live in the storm till you die blue eyes neva look the same
When they frozen to gray

How can you walk when you feet are frozen to ice, standing in the cold water then you Pay the price, Rollin dice hopen to gain a single step out of your vice, fill another cup, Make sure you ice, it's game between mice and men, fights within, a life based on wats right,

And dark sin, and it's constant to him who chooses to grin, who neva wants the sun to come out In win, so sit in ya frozen corpse and move through the day, stiff to the world and things that I say, it's a cold winter day when the in snows inside, ya temple at a still forced to halt From ya pride, But today is the day I grind away the deep sheet, let the water dry and heal From the beat, let the heat come in and remove the snow, now you know this is how that story Goes this is how the story goes.
