It's too late now to help yourself.
Time for the Maker to help himself.

Foolish man with days to live.
Waste not your time.
It's way too late to save your soul in time.
You're far too old your soul to find.
You've wrecked your head,
and blown your mind.
It's too late to find your music soul.

It's too late now to help yourself.
Time for the Maker to help himself.
It's too late to find your music soul.

In younger men you watch yourself.
Destroy themselves like you.
It's way too late to save their lives in time.
You're far too old , their souls to find.
You've wrecked your head,
and blown your mind.
It's too late to find your music soul.

It's too late now to help yourself.
Time for the Maker to help himself.
It's too late to find your music soul.
