I was born to be fly, so high that I rise to the sky then die with the n9ne in my mind Rewind, we blind from the light that shines mother fucke we are so defined My souls's depleted but I'm never defeated, I gotta demon inside me and I'm always bleeding Recieveing the benifit without the doubt taking the route of darkness then block it out I'm polyfic and so much different I'm out of this world.
to fly for distance No more tension or did we mention that we're slaughtering every session Got my crew in the next two sections the duce duce just blew my message
No affection we be slashing anyone whos out there
