I'm heading the direction I'm supposed to be walking Been on this road for a minute back when it was cool to have a walkman.
Every twist and turn it gave me I followed it, played the shoulder but I Never got off track
Though there was no guardrails, to hold me back, Moving faster than I should of while they put on an act
Said I was going the wrong way, pursuing the wrong things
I say I just go where I'm supposed to (you feel me?)
What am I supposed to do?
Listen to me or listen to you?
I'm sick of all the hating so called friends exude Fates got it's own plans and paths
And at the end of everyone's road there's an ambulance
We all born to die
What happens in between constitutes our lives
Not the soul knows the way so why Do you think you know mine I saw my dreams from the beginning like sight Beyond sight.

They say I'm going the wrong way but the paths don't change
Destiny is pre-determined so I find my way
I'm just trying to find the lines in those shades of gray
They think I'm lost and so I say
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go
They think I'm going the wrong way but they don't know for sure
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go

I heard each day was written so I'm on this course for a reason and I live
It no matter the consequence
I'll die a starving artist if it comes down to it
I don't know why I see these dreams
But the passion to pursue em is undeniable

Still feels viable
My fam deserves the good life therefore I feel liable Even though I wonder sometimes why I'm trying for I've seen it all but not enough You'd think my eyes were full
But maybe I'm the fool that never listens While they was making good grades I was making wishes
While they was washing Escalades I was washing dishes
They dreaming about the stage
And what songs I be spitting
The next weekend and at the show Smart enough to do all I've been told Usually followed by rapping to the wrong road
I'm going the wrong way
I say No
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go

They say I'm going the wrong way but the paths don't change
Destiny is pre-determined so I find my way
I'm just trying to find the lines in those shades of gray
They think I'm lost and so I say
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go
They think I'm going the wrong way but they don't know
for sure
I'm just going where I'm supposed to go
