(Carl Jackson & Larry Cordle)

I hear a lonesome dove off in the distance

His cry echoes out through the hills

He's sad that his lover flew off with another

And I know the sorrow he feels.

Lonesome dove we're not that different

You sing a sad song but you're not alone

You've been forever forsaken by the one that you love

I know how you feel lonesome dove.

I know how you feel lonesome dove.

I've tried to run from the pain of her memory

But I can't find a place I can hide

And that old lonesome dove is gonna mourn for his love

No matter how far he flies.

Lonesome dove we're not that different

You sing a sad song but you're not alone

You've been forever forsaken by the one that you love

I know how you feel lonesome dove.

I know how you feel lonesome dove...
