Ricky Skaggs
"Callin' Your Name"

(Larry Cordle - Chris Austin)

Well, I'm callin' callin' callin' your name
I don't believe I'm gettin' through I think it's all in vain
Because you're fallin' fallin' fallin' out of love
It seems the best that I can do is never good enough.

Once I meant the world to you or was it just an act
If you loved me like you used to you couldn't turn your back
And leave me leave me taking the blame
Callin', callin', calin' your name.

--- Instrumental ---

Now I'm holdin', holdin', barely holdin' on
It's just about all I can do while sittin' here alone
To keep from callin' callin' callin' your name
Callin', callin', callin' your name.

Once I meant the world to you or was it just an act
If you loved me like you used to you couldn't turn your back
And leave me leave me taking the blame
Callin', callin', calin' your name.

Callin', callin', calin' your name.
Callin', callin', calin' your name…
