Have you someone in heaven a'waiting
Expecting you on that beautiful shore
Be ready to join that great band of angels
When they welcome you into that heavenly door.

Come sinners take heed while Jesus is waiting
Please never be caught in the pathway of sin
For Jesus may call your name in the morning
When heaven's gates open will you enter in.

The vision will hear the prayer of the sinner
No matter how dark no matter how late
He'll welcome you home to the heavenly mansion
Take a straight narrow way to that beautiful gate...
