(Bill Monroe)

Oh, you said that you loved me, that your heart would be true
But now you've gone and left me, I'm so blue
I believed in you darling, that your heart would be true
But now you've gone and left me, I'm so blue.

Our vows have been broken, you have proven untrue
Another has my sweetheart and the love that I once knew
I believed in you darling, that your heart would be true
But now you've gone and left me, I'm so blue.

--- Instrumental ---

Oh, the nights are so lonely, dreams of you haunt me so
What's happened little darling, I don't know Oh, I believed in you darling, that your heart would be true
But now you've gone and left me, I'm so blue.

Our vows have been broken, you have proven untrue
knew
I believed in you darling, that your heart would be true
But now you've gone and left me, I'm so blue...
