(Carl Jackson - Ethan Raily)

I'd grown so used to you I took for granted
Fire of love we built would always burn
And now I stand alone among the ashes
And losin' was the hardest way to learn.

When I think what I've lost it drives me crazy
Lately I've been crazy all the time
Things I do are starting to amaze me
'Cause I can't seem to get you off my mind.

By my side where I need you
By my side no one else
I need you always beside me
'Cause without you I'm beside myself.

--- Instrumental ---

I need you always beside me
'Cause without you I'm beside myself.
Now without you I'm beside myself...
