Look up a man this lonesome road;
Hang down your head and cry;
For we often lose some things in life;
That makes us wonder why.

Oh the fairest love I ever had;
Now sleeps beneath the clay;
I live in hopes and dreams of her;
That weâ€™ll meet again someday:

I often said and wonder why;
Life has to be this way;
But after all is said and done
Iâ€™m sure God has his say;

Iâ€™d like to be a small part of life;
With some good things to achieve:
Just to know Iâ€™ve been a fruitless part;
Would give my poor heart grief.

Now when they lower my casket down;
Itâ€™s a lonesome grave to rest;
And you take one last look at my face;
You can say I done my best.
