Don't Blame Me, for what you wouldn't do.
Don't Blame Me, for what you wouldn't do.
Put your heart, upon a shelf, or give it to someone else.
Just don't blame me. For what you wouldn't do.

There beneath the departure sign.
Got you there at half past nine.
What am I, supposed to do?

I held you close and said goodbye
I held you close and said goodbye.
And what am I, supposed to do?

Don't Blame Me, for what you wouldn't do.
Don't Blame Me, for what you wouldn't do.
Put your heart, upon a shelf, or give it to someone else.
Just don't blame me. For what you wouldn't do.

I felt numb as I drove away.
With half of me gone, half of me here to stay.
What am I supposed to do?

Took off my coat, threw down my keys,
And looked at the place that you had to leave.
What am I supposed to do?

Don't Blame Me, for what you wouldn't do.
Don't Blame Me, for what you wouldn't do.
Put your heart, upon a shelf, or give it to someone else.
Just don't blame me. For what you wouldn't do.
