Comin' home to your face for the 9th last time
Swallowin' whole the disgrace that's been 8 times mine
And I can't admit or cut to the quick of it
This just is not where I want to be for me
Can't pack up or settle in and I've been here forever Won't back down, must give in, I failed to break the tether
And I can't admit, or cut to the quick of it
This just is not where I want to be for me
For me
Running away takes one braver than I
I can't greet this goodbye
Because of you, because of me
This is not what I wanted to be!
And I can't admit, or cut to the quick of it
This just is not what I wanted to be
And I can't admit, or cut to the quick of it
This just is not what I wanted to be
No
Comin' home to your face for the 10th last time
